
Anyone know Cranium?

Does anyone know the board game "Cranium"?

I would like to know what you think of it - compared to Trivial Pursuit for instance.

Any comments would be appreciated.

I most certainly do know Cranium very well and I strongly suggest it to ANYONE.

It's a great family game, because anyone can have fun doing the little tasks that keep you active and creative. For the same reason, it's also a great adult party (in other words drinking) game. Have you ever seen a drunk trying to roll a penny across the floor with his nose?

Compared to Trivial Pursuits, well, there is no comparison.

I agree with Quiz Whiz, Cranium is a fun family game but it is the BEST drinking game!
