Stumbled on the site www.Sploofus.com - it's a trivia site with some very good trivia quizzes, but also cool word quizzes and puzzles. Try it out.

I spent one coffee break at this website and it looks so interesting that I have to test it properly as soon as possible, looks nice. According to player listings this is truly international site and they players from all around the world. How high are you ranked already Cpacan?

:laugh:

I just play trivia question of the day and from time to time a word puzzle. I usually on a monthly basis end among top 25% in TQOTD and top 10% in word puzzles.

Go ahead and beat me...:woohoo:
